

informed of the name of his accuser, the crime with which he is charged, and a bare outline of the facts."

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Milwaukee.—Body of woman, unidentified, found in debris of Windsor Hotel, destroyed week ago Thursday. Body lay on bed which had dropped four stories, and was pinned under steel girders.

Alton, Ill.—Fire destroyed Alton Y. M. C. A. Loss $76,000. All occupants escaped.

Binghamton, N. Y.—Worst flood since 1865. Two lives lost and $500,000 property damage. Hundreds of families in second floors of homes. Rain still falling.

Neville, Saskatchewan.—Clinton Cochrane, La Porte, Ind., marshal, arrived here and left for Windsor to interview woman thought to be Mrs. Belle Gunness, owner of La Porte murder farm.

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—Susquehanna river threatening city lowlands. People preparing to leave homes. Traction system out of commission in west section of city.

Tomah, Wis.—L. M. Underwood, veterinary surgeon, crushed to death against steering wheel when car crashed through bridge rail.

London.—Fourteen persons seriously injured when barge platform on Thames river collapsed during Oxford-Cambridge boat race.

East St. Louis, Ill.—E. F. Gerold, former city treasurer, found guilty of embezzling $50,000.

Worcester, Mass.—Fire destroyed new central telephone exchange building. Loss $100,000.

Washington.—Wade D. Cooper, local banker, indicted by grand jury on charge criminal libel, result of accusations against Justice Daniel Thew Wright of District of Columbia supreme court.

Milwaukee.—Adam Polski, laborer, arrested on charge of murdering Val Wlaniewski. Quarrel.

Galesburg, Ill.—Harry L. Lane, prominent resident of East Galesburg, suburb, struck by Santa Fe train. Dead.

River Falls, Wis.—Normal school closed. Smallpox.

Dallas, Tex.—Excessive rains amounting to cloudbursts crippled railroad traffic in East Texas.

Joliet, Ill.—Ex-Judge Fred C. White, Pontiac, who had started serving year sentence in Illinois state prison following conviction on charge of forgery, released on writ of supersedeas.

Berlin.—"Keep the good work up," Emperor William told Ferdinand Egliniski, 53, tailor and father of 35 children. Six sons in army.

St. Paul.—Frederick Weyerhaeuser, said to be one of richest men in world, reported near death.

Washington.—Bureau of Immigration issued regulations governing entry of Chinese participating in Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915.

Washington.—Navy wireless dispatch reported from Admiral Mayo, Tampico, Mex., reported that rebels had again destroyed pumping station of waterworks and cut off water supply.

Washington.—Smith bill providing for grading of cotton by Sec'y of Agriculture and requiring all stock exchanges to trade exclusively in grades as so fixed passed by senate.

Superior, Wis.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed State Normal School. Loss $250,000.

Topeka, Kan.—Receivers asked for United States Gas Improvement Co., Philadelphia; Kansas City Missouri Gas Co. and Wyandotte County Gas Co. Penalties of $300,000 asked from U. S. Gas Improvement Co. for alleged violation of anti-trust laws.

AN ILL WIND

"Wouldn't it be great if everybody in the world paid their bills promptly?"

"It wouldn't be for me. I'm a bill collector."